Are you interested in developing your leadership skills, work in a multicultural and non-formal education environment while learning about how to cultivate and empower active youth participation in our society?
Then this activity is for you!

ORGANISER

This activity is organised by Nordisk Ungdomsorganisation (NordUng) / Nordic Youth Organisation (NordYouth).

EVENT DESCRIPTION

This is a workshop participants to further understand what leadership means in the context of active youth participation. We use non-formal education methods to:

- 1) discuss democracy, active citizenship, youth participation from a leader's perspective
- 2) learn about leadership in the context of empowering youth
- 3) produce text/video/audio material as NGO tools supporting leaders of young people to support them in taking first steps towards becoming more active participants in society.
- 4) implement tools of leadership as we prepare the leaders for Youth Week 2024 and similar youth activities in your own organisations

PARTICIPANT PLACES

Participants should be young people interested in the content who are at least 20 years old.

NB! Priority is given to applicants under 30 years old.

Please note: it is possible to apply as a regular participant, but you can also apply to become a member of the leader team for Youth Week 2024, in which case you need to be available to join the activity from 14th till 21st of July in Åland islands, Finland.
